

Benefiting the athletes of

WHAT:
2007 Derby Duck Race

WHEN:
April 28th 2007,
12:00pm – 3:30pm

WHERE:
The Commons,
Atlantic Station

WHO:
10,000 yellow rubber ducks

WHY:
Funds raised from the adoptions of ducks go directly to support the year-round programs of Special Olympics Georgia for athletes with intellectual disabilities.

HOW CAN I ADOPT MINE?

Go to our website for information on adoption locations, or to adopt your duck online after 3/9. www.SpecialOlympicsGA.org

What is the Duck Derby Race?

13,000 yellow rubber ducks will race along the lake at Atlantic Station to raise funds for Special Olympics Georgia.

What if my Duck Wins?

1st Place wins a five day, four night all inclusive stay at Jalousie Plantation in St Lucia with airfare on Air Jamaica. 2nd -5th Places win fantastic prizes like airline tickets, a $500 Macy's Gift Card, a Havertys Furniture Gift Card, electronics from Philips and more. Plus everyone who purchases a Quack Pack gets a chance to enter a raffle for other great prizes. You can adopt your own 2007 Derby Duck for $5.

The event is free to watch, and open to the public, so adopt your duck and come down to Atlantic Station to see if your duck has won a prize.

Sponsored by:

Supported by:

ENTRY FORM – 2007 DERBY DUCK RACE

Name _____
 Address _____
 City/St/Zip _____
 Email _____
 Phone _____
 Credit Card _____ Expiration _____
 Signature _____

I wish to enter:

_____ Single Duck(s) Total
 duck entry - $5 each $_____

_____ Quack Pack(s) $_____
 4 duck entries - $20
 (PLUS souvenir junior duck)

Please return with credit card information or a check to:
Special Olympics Georgia Duck Derby, 4000 Dekalb Tech Pkwy, Ste 400, Bldg 400, Atlanta, GA 30340
 Call 770-414-9390 ext. 117 or ext. 111 for more information