45 Years of Unifying the Community!

Mission

Special Olympics Georgia provides year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic-type sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities, giving them continuing opportunities to develop physical fitness, demonstrate courage, experience joy, and participate in the sharing of gifts, skills and friendships with their families, other Special Olympics athletes and the community.

Letter From the CEO and Chairman of the Board

Dear Friends and Supporters,

It's hard to believe Special Olympics Georgia (SOGA) has been active and growing as a nonprofit for the past 45 years! 2015 was an exciting year filled with challenges, accomplishments, tough competitions, intense trainings and newly formed friendships, all which created unity in our communities and with each other.

Some of the highlights from 2015 are:

- * The program was implemented statewide by a volunteer base of 33,787 committed and passionate individuals who are true believers in Special Olympics Georgia and the 26,702 athletes.
- * Through our Healthy Athlete initiatives, 995 athletes were given the opportunity to be evaluated by medical professionals in order to promote improved wellness and health.
- * 7,340 athletes competed in the 5 State Competitions.
- * The first-ever Special Olympics Unified Relay Across America stopped in many communities in our state in June. This historic event brought together our Special Olympics Georgia supporters in helping to carry the "Flame of Hope," as the torch made the journey across America to the 2015 Special Olympics World Summer Games in Los Angeles. The Unified Relay united Georgia and the country by increasing understanding and acceptance of people with intellectual disabilities.
- * 14 athletes, coaches and sports managers participated in the Special Olympics World Summer Games held in Los Angeles, California...a trip of a lifetime.
- * More than 30 law enforcement agencies, and over 1,000 runners, helped to bear the "Flame of Hope" on its journey throughout the state and to its final destination at Emory University for the State Summer Games Opening Ceremony. Law Enforcement Torch Run ended their fundraising year surpassing all goals with a total raised of more than $864,000 for Special Olympics Georgia athletes.
- * SOGA purchased 2 acres of land which will become the new Special Olympics Georgia Headquarters, future home of a large Sports Training Lab and the SOGA offices.

We could not have done any of this without the generous support of our families, coaches, donors and volunteers, and we are looking ahead to an even brighter future of acceptance, hope, awareness and unity.

Thank you for being the cheering fans who stand united and alongside every Special Olympics Georgia athlete!

Sincerely,

Georgia Milton-Sheats

Sports Offered and 2015 State Competitions

Special Olympics Georgia offers year-round training and competition in 25 sports and hosts five State Competitions.

Participation in sports training and competition provides athletes with opportunities to focus on a goal, learn new sports and daily living skills, develop healthy habits, increase independence, and interact with peers. Through successful experiences in sports, our athletes gain confidence and build positive self-images that go with them into their homes, classrooms, jobs, and communities. In addition to athletic achievement, athletes use their strong spirits and dedication to work hard to help change public perceptions about intellectual disabilities. Special Olympics Georgia athletes are proof that differences should be embraced, appreciated, and celebrated.

State Indoor Winter Games - January 23-25, Cobb County: Artistic Gymnastics, Basketball, Bowling, Floor Hockey, Powerlifting, Roller Skating

State Summer Games - May 29-31, Emory University: Aquatics, Athletics, Flag Football, Rhythmic Gymnastics, Soccer, Table Tennis, Tennis, Volleyball

State Masters Bowling Tournament - August 21-23, Warner Robins: Traditional and Unified Bowling for athletes ages 22 and up

State Fall Games - October 9-11, Gainesville: Bocce, Cycling, Golf, Softball

State Horse Show - October 9-11, Gainesville: Dressage, Horsemanship/Equitation, Showmanship, Unified Drill Team, Western Riding

SOGA athletes competed in kayaking, equestrian, gymnastics, aquatics, and sailing, and they brought home a combined 12 medals and 7 ribbons. ESPN provided unprecedented coverage of the Games.

Meet Our Athletes

Tyechia Luster was one of the first athletes to compete in Albany Recreation and Parks Department's Special Olympics program.

In seven years, Tyechia has competed all over the state, is an accomplished athlete, and she looks forward to each sport and competition with great enthusiasm.

Tyechia's sports include bowling, 3-on-3 basketball, tennis, bocce, softball, and volleyball, and her love for Special Olympics is infectious and has spread to her family. Her sister Natasha has been her unified partner in bocce and bowling, and her brother-in-law Eric accompanies them to most competitions.

The highlight of Tyechia's Special Olympics career came in 2014 when she was selected to represent Team Georgia in bocce at the USA Games in New Jersey. Tyechia enjoyed all of the extra practices, special events, and especially flying in a plane for the first time in her life. And if that wasn't enough, she brought home medals in bocce singles, doubles, and team competition.

In addition to competing with Special Olympics Georgia, Tyechia works at Goodwill Industries on the Marine Corps Logistics Base in Albany and enjoys a full and happy life with her family. Tyechia says that Special Olympics has given her self-confidence. She knows she can do anything when she does her best.

Through Ryan Phillips' involvement in Special Olympics Georgia and trying his very best, he has come very far not only as an athlete, but also as an individual.

After losing his mother when he was very young, Ryan was withdrawn and unable to be around loud noises and crowds. But when he turned 11, the Carrollton athlete pushed himself to compete with Special Olympics in softball, basketball, and soccer. Through sports competition and being a part of a team, Ryan began to outgrow his shy demeanor.

Now 22, Ryan is very social and continues to amaze those around him who have seen him grow into the outgoing and motivational young adult that he is today. In 2010, Ryan traveled to Omaha, NE as a SOGA representative at the National Youth Summit during the USA Games. Ryan has attended Special Olympics Georgia's Camp Inspire as an athlete and as a Y-LEAD (Youth Leaders Educating others About Disability) representative.

Ryan's hard work as an athlete and ambassador is how he achieved the major milestone of becoming a college student. Ryan attends Kennesaw State University's Inclusive Academy and lives on campus in a dorm. Ryan is a leader and an incredible inspiration to others.

"Let Me Win. But If I Cannot Win, Let Me Be Brave In The Attempt."

HEALTHY ATHLETES® PROGRAM

Healthy Athletes is a Special Olympics program that provides free health examinations in a fun, welcoming environment that removes the anxiety people with intellectual disabilities sometimes experience when faced with a visit to a medical professional. The mission of Healthy Athletes is to improve the athlete's ability to train and compete in Special Olympics.

Athletes receive a variety of health screenings and services to assist in enhancing their sports experience and well-being. Clinics are conducted at State Games throughout the year. Screenings are performed by health care professionals and trained students. We not only serve the athletes, but also train the healthcare professionals who then go back to their practices with increased skills and abilities to treat people with intellectual disabilities.

Examinations are offered in six areas:

Fit Feet (podiatry)

FUNfitness (general exercise habits)

Healthy Hearing (audiology)

Health Promotion (better health and well-being)

Opening Eyes (vision)

Special Smiles (dentistry)

PROJECT UNIFY®

Project UNIFY is a school-based program that uses the sports and education initiatives of Special Olympics to activate young people to develop school communities where all youth are agents of change – fostering respect, dignity, and advocacy for people with intellectual disabilities.

Special Olympics Georgia is excited to finish our 7th year with the program. During the 2014/2015 school year, 21 schools participated in the program, 463 athletes and 869 youth participated in Unified Sports, 457 athletes and 734 youth participated in after-school Partners Clubs, and 1,054 youth attended a Special Olympics local competition as Fans in the Stands to cheer on their schoolmates.

Project Unify is changing school climates and establishing friendships that otherwise might not form. Students are empowered to be leaders in their schools and educate their peers about diversity, anti-bullying and respect.

KEY INITIATIVES:

Youth Leadership – Students with and without disabilities form Youth Activation Committees within their school and work with teachers to determine what activities will be planned throughout the year.

Unified Sports – Unified Sports partner students with and without disabilities on the same team. These teams practice and compete together to form friendships on and off the field within their schools.

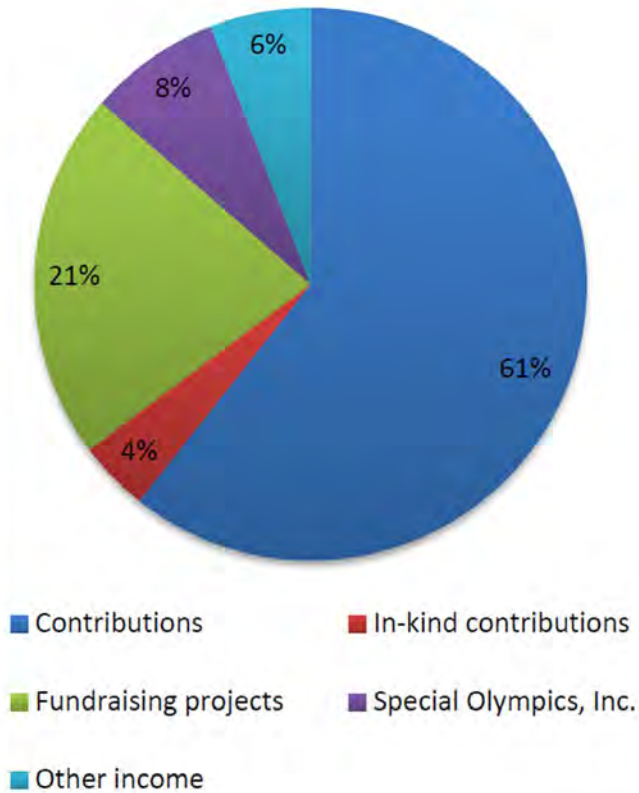

R-Word Campaigns – Students host R-word campaigns in their school, encouraging peers to end the use of the word retard(ed). This makes for a more welcoming environment in the school.

School and Community Service – Students perform service projects within their school and their local community. Community service projects include volunteering, fundraising, and R-word rallies.

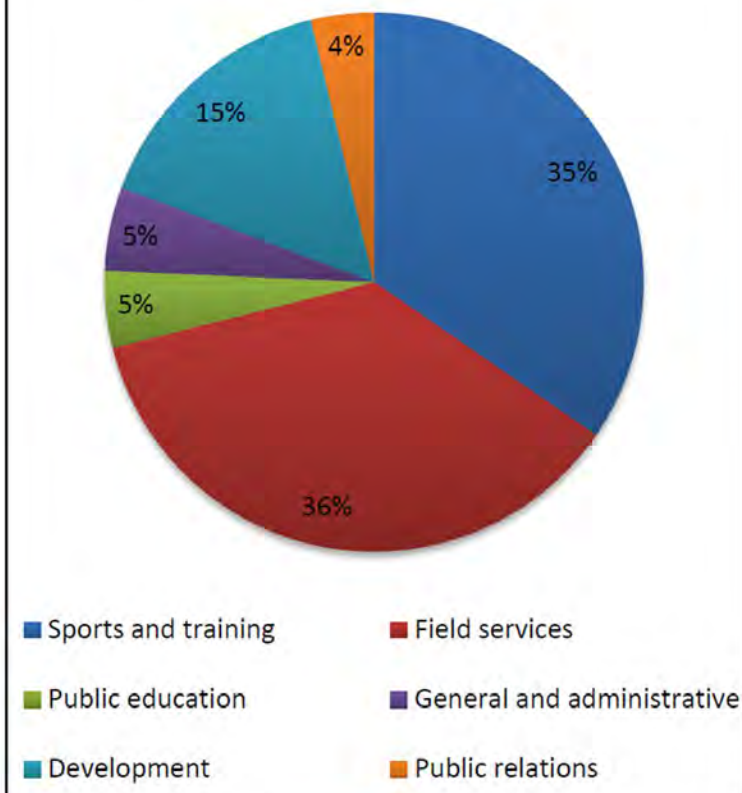

For the year ended December 31, 2015

SOGA and The Community

We rely on sponsors, donors, and volunteers throughout the year to train and coach our athletes and help make our sports competitions and special events happen. With the community's generous support, Special Olympics Georgia is helping bring people with intellectual disabilities into the larger society under conditions whereby they are accepted, respected, and given the chance to become useful and productive citizens.

The Champion's Society Protects Athletes' Futures

The Champion's Society members are the guardians who protect our athletes' future. By providing for Special Olympics in their will or other estate planning today, members of The Champion's Society guarantee the long term success of Special Olympics and our athletes. There are no membership fees or minimum gift amounts to join The Champion's Society, and the size of your gift is kept confidential. If you have already left Special Olympics in a bequest or other planned gift, in order to ensure that we receive the gift you intend for us, and so that your wishes for your gift are honored, we hope you will let us know. For more information about how you can become a member of The Champion's Society, please contact Connie Grandmason at 866-690-3951 or cgrandmason@specialolympicsga.org.
