

Spend the bucks, Adopt the ducks, TRAIN CHAMPIONS!

2014 Duck Derby to benefit Special Olympics Georgia – Adopt a duck to benefit the athletes of Special Olympics Georgia. For a donation of $5 or more, a lucky number will be assigned to a yellow rubber duck(s) in your honor. 10,000 ducks will race against each other in the annual Duck Derby held at Six Flags White Water on Friday, August 8th. If your adopted duck is the first to cross the finish line, you win!

Your contribution helps ensure Special Olympics Georgia can continue to offer free year-round sports training and competitions to 25,878 athletes with intellectual disabilities all across Georgia.

- Single Duck Adoption - by donating $5, you receive 1 duck entry into the derby and provide the funds for 1 meal to 1 athlete during State Summer Games.
- Increase your chances and get a Quack Pack - by donating $30, you receive 7 entries into the derby plus 1 souvenir junior duck and provide gold, silver, bronze medals for one competition at State Summer Games.
- For a great deal adopt a Quacker's Dozen - by donating $60, you receive 15 entries into the derby plus 2 souvenir junior ducks and provide 4 athletes housing for 2 nights at State Summer Games.
- For the best bang for your "Duck," get a MEGA Quack Pack - by donating $100, you receive 25 duck entries into the derby plus 3 souvenir junior ducks and provide housing for 2 nights and 2 meals for 4 athletes at State Summer Games.
