Special Olympics Georgia is a year-round program of sports training and athletic competition for children and adults with intellectual disabilities.

Porter Lummus
Chairman, Board of Directors

Georgia Milton-Sheats
Chief Executive Officer

MISSION

To provide year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic-type sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities, giving them continuing opportunities to develop physical fitness, demonstrate courage, experience joy, and participate in the sharing of gifts, skills and friendship with their families, other Special Olympics athletes and the community.

GOAL

To help bring individuals with intellectual disabilities into the larger society under conditions whereby they are accepted, respected and given the chance to become useful and productive citizens.

VOLUNTEERS

Thousands of volunteers implement the Special Olympics program on the grassroots level.

They serve on management teams, organize and conduct local, area and state Special Olympics activities and competitions, and assist in fundraising efforts.

Volunteers serve as certified coaches, games officials, assistant coaches and in a wide variety of other capacities in support of Special Olympics athletes.

SPORTS

Special Olympics Georgia offers year-round training and competition in 26 Olympic-type sports:

Alpine Skiing	Ice Skating—
Athletics	Figure or Speed
Badminton	Kayaking
Basketball	Powerlifting
Bocce	Roller Skating
Bowling	Sailing
Cycling	Softball
Equestrian	Soccer
Flag Football	Snowboarding
Floor Hockey	Swimming
Golf	Table Tennis
Gymnastics—	Tennis
Artistic or Rhythmic	Volleyball

In addition to the sports listed above, the Motor Activities Training Program (MATP) is offered to individuals with more severe disabilities who are not able to compete in a rigorous sports program. The MATP emphasizes training and participation rather than competition.

Special Olympics is unique by accommodating competitors at all ability levels in order to give everyone a reasonable opportunity to win. It does this by assigning all athletes to competition divisions based on previous performances and/or preliminary heats. Athletes from all divisions may advance to Area, State, Regional & World Games.

BENEFITS

Special Olympics Georgia contributes to the physical, social and psychological development of people with intellectual disabilities. Through successful experiences in sports, the athletes gain confidence and build a positive self-image which carries over into the classroom, the home, the job and the community.

In addition, involvement with Special Olympics Georgia strengthens families, causing a richer appreciation of talents and greater support between the Special Olympics athletes, siblings and parents.

Also, the community at large — through observation and participation — is united in understanding people with developmental disabilities in an environment of equality, respect and acceptance.

COMPETITION

Special Olympics Georgia athletes train year-round for sports competitions which are patterned after the Olympic Games and held annually at each organizational level. Over 600 games, meets and tournaments are held in communities throughout Georgia.

Four Statewide events are held annually. They culminate in the Special Olympics World Summer and Winter Games which alternate every two years.

ELIGIBILITY

Individuals eight years of age and older who are identified by an agency or professional as having an intellectual disability are eligible to participate in the Special Olympics Georgia program. In Georgia, intellectual disability refers to significantly sub-average general intellectual functioning (approximately 70 IQ and below) existing concurrently with deficits in adaptive behavior (significant limitations in an individual's effectiveness in meeting standards of maturation, learning, personal independence or the social responsibility expected of the individual's age level). In addition to its year-round program of training and competition, Special Olympics Georgia sponsors ongoing training for coaches, officials, volunteers and families.

PROGRAMS

Special Olympics introduced the Unified Sports[®] program to bring together, on the same team, athletes with and without intellectual disabilities. These teams train and compete with other Unified Sports[®] teams in 20 established sports — artistic gymnastics, athletics, badminton, basketball, bocce, bowling, cycling, figure ice skating, flag football, floor hockey, golf, powerlifting, rhythmic gymnastics, sailing, soccer, softball, swimming, table tennis, tennis and volleyball. Unified Sports[®] furthers Special Olympics Georgia's commitment to foster inclusion into school and community sports programs.

Partners Clubs bring together Special Olympics athletes and volunteer students who serve as peer coaches.

GOVERNANCE

Special Olympics Georgia is authorized and accredited by Special Olympics Incorporated to provide sports programs for citizens of Georgia with intellectual disabilities. Established in 1970, Special Olympics Georgia is governed by a volunteer Board of Directors.

Special Olympics Incorporated was founded in 1968 by Eunice Kennedy Shriver. Tim Shriver is Chairman of the Board of Directors and Mary Davis is the President and CEO.

ATHLETE LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

Special Olympics athletes also participate through the Athlete Leadership Programs (ALPS).

Global Messengers are Special Olympics athletes who serve as ambassadors for Special Olympics Georgia, helping to recruit athletes and volunteers, secure donations, and raise public awareness. These athletes have received training in public speaking and travel throughout the state, telling their story of what Special Olympics means to them. Visits from Global Messengers can be arranged through the Special Olympics Georgia office.

In other ALPS programs, athletes participate in improving Special Olympics through the Athlete Input Council and serve as assistant coaches and competition officials. Athletes can also serve as members of the board of directors, and on local and area management teams.

Special Olympics
Georgia

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Special Olympics Georgia is supported by funds raised from individuals, organizations, corporations, foundations, Board members, Honorary Board members and by revenue generated from special events, special projects and cause-related marketing programs.

The largest annual fundraising event is the Law Enforcement Torch Run. Held prior to Special Olympics Georgia's Summer Games, the Torch Run generates statewide publicity for Special Olympics and the Summer Games.

Special Olympics Georgia does not charge athletes or their families to participate, does not receive any funding from Special Olympics Incorporated or state government, and is not a United Way agency.
